

The Everest Three Passes Trek

Trip Overview

The Everest Three Pass Trek is around 18 days of challenging yet rewarding trekking in the three high-altitude passes, namely, Cho La Pass (5420 m), Renjo La Pass (5465 m), and Khongma La Pass (5,535 m). Everest Three Passes Trek is further recognized for its stepping trekking experience at the altitude of 5545 m.

As you ascend from a small village in Lukla, which is the gateway to the Everest region, you will be treated to panoramic views of the Himalayas and Everest Region. You can conquer Namche Bazaar, Everest Base Camp, Kala Patthar, and Gokyo Lakes in the Khumbu region. Further, you will pass through the enormous Dudh Koshi River along with the intense Gompas and Temples.

This Everest Three Passes Trek will take you through the Sagarmatha National Park, which covers an area of 1148 sq. km. This epic adventure through the hearts of the Khumbu region in Nepal will present you with breathtaking views of the Everest massif and the surrounding peaks.

Stepping up toward high altitude, you can capture beautiful scenarios and immerse yourself in the rich culture and history of the locals. The Sherpa people, with their warm hospitality, will welcome you to the gateway of snow-capped peaks.

You will be trekking on the footprints of the legendary Tenzing Norgay and Edmund Hillary. Isn't it amazing?

Well, if you are planning for this excursion, Pure Adventure Nepal will set up this Everest Three Passes Trek for you as per your preference and schedule.
